Additional Notes

- For the second year in a row the tournament is being played in August instead of its previous June slot.
- There have been some tee renovations since last year's event.
- This is the second year of a drought in Utah and the course has been allocated a 60% water reduction and reduced irrigation season.
- Carl Sarahs became just the third course professional in course history this year. He followed the father/son combination of Russ and Rick Mears, who combined for 66 years.
